To

Respected and Dear Unit Adviser

Greetings from AICUF and MAGIS team!

I am delighted to contact you through this note. Besides serving as the Tamilnadu State Adviser of AICUF, I have been also serving as the Jesuit Madurai Province Coordinator of Jesuit Youth Ministry in South Asia (JYMSA) that facilitates youth promotional activities. One such activity is MAGIS programme.

MAGIS is the buzz word of the Society of Jesus, extensively used by St. Ignatius in his writings. It means 'more and more'. It contains a very deep spiritual thirst in knowing, loving and serving God. It evokes a sense of moving higher in reaching one's goals, deepening the understanding of the moves of the spirit within and widening one's social knowledge and intelligence.

Keeping this trust in the background and calling on hundreds of university students to instil the spirit of MAGIS, for the past four years JYMSA has been organising a five day gathering that has multi-focuses, such as motivational inputs, cultural celebrations, exposure to the reality, prayer and meditations, group work and all aimed at energising the youth in transforming them into men and women for and with others.

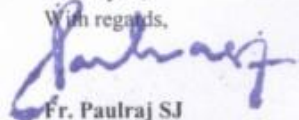

We are planning to mobilise and gather 650 to 700 university students from all over the country and some representatives from the South Asian Countries. Loyola College, Chennai is the venue of the programme that is slated for four days from 12th January, 2018.

This note of mine comes to your goodness with three requests:

1. Kindly choose at least five students from your esteemed college and send them to the MAGIS programme, which certainly would make a difference in their lives.
2. If you happen to pass by Chennai those days, we will be delighted to have you experience MAGIS any day during the programme.
3. Believing in your magnanimity, we earnestly request you to render your financial support to us (Budget attached). Whatever be the contribution, we are sure that you are with us!

Herewith, please find attached the budget of the programme and the bank details. We appeal to you to favourably consider our request.

Thank you,
With regards,

Fr. Paulraj SJ
